

JEWISH STUDIES MAJOR WORKSHEET

The major is designed to offer an in-depth engagement with the historical and cultural experience of Jews throughout the world, and to Jewish thought, literature, and contemporary political and social issues. Those completing the major are encouraged to participate in the study-abroad offerings of the program and to obtain at least a working knowledge in a language relevant to research in Jewish Studies such as Hebrew, Russian or German.

Requirements:

A total of ten courses, which must include:

Pre-Modern Era

One of the following:

- JWST 6 - Introduction to Judaism
- JWST 10 - History and Culture of the Jews: Antiquity and Medieval
- JWST 4 - Hebrew Bible

_____ Term _____

Modern Era

One of the following:

- JWST 11 - History and Culture of the Jews : Modern
- JWST 61 - Modern Judaism
- FSP in Berlin

_____ Term _____

Seminar

One of the following:

- JWST 44 - Making of the Modern Middle East

- JWST 51 - Freud, Jews and Gender
- JWST 74 - The Jewish Jesus
- JWST 53 - Gender and Judaism
- JWST 40 - Politics of Israel and Palestine
- JWST 37 - Nazis, Neo-Nazis and Antifa
- JWST 13 - Jews and Race
- JWST 42 - Arabs, Jews and Constructions of Modernity

_____ Term _____

Culminating Experience

One of the following:

- JWST 85 - Independent Study
- JWST 86 and 87 - two- term/two credit thesis project

_____ Term _____

Additional Coursework

6 additional courses in Jewish Studies

_____ Term _____

_____ Term _____

_____ Term _____

_____ Term _____

_____ Term _____

_____ Term _____